PROFILE

I'm a software engineer in New York City, with experience in Ruby, JavaScript/Node.js, PostgreSQL, AWS, Rails, and React. My most recent project, Haven, is a Secrets Manager for Node applications.

EXPERIENCE

Haven Co-Founder & Software Engineer   08/2020 – present
Haven (https://haven-secrets.github.io/) ⤢
  - Designed, prototyped, and built Haven Core using Node.js and AWS.
  - Implemented client-side envelope encryption and additional authenticated data for integrity using KMS and Encryption SDK, ensuring secrets were encrypted in transit via TLS, as well as at rest.
  - Utilized AWS DynamoDB for secrets storage to minimize latency.
  - Set up AWS IAM permissions to restrict access to AWS KMS master key and secrets on a per project's environment basis.
  - Solved credentials distribution problem with temporary credentials for on-boarding team members using Lambda.
  - Wrote secrets injection logic for Node.js child spawn process at runtime and redacted STDOUT and STDERR from logs.
  - Wrote AWS CloudFormation for automation and provisioning of tear down and setup for Haven resources.
  - Created GUI (React) and API (Node/Express) and Intuitive CLI to manage secrets, projects, users and logs.
  - Published multiple application packages to npm.
  - Co-authored comprehensive technical case study and application docs. (https://haven-secrets.github.io/case-study ⤢).
  - Collaborated daily with a fully remote team of engineers.
